ORDER

On de novo review, the Court adopts Magistrate Judge Ray's partial recommendation, No. 4, and overrules Hampton's objections, No. 5. FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b)(3). If Hampton wants to raise new or additional facts, then he must do so in a motion to amend his complaint—not in his objections to the recommendation. But as the complaint stands now, Hampton's equal protection claim and his official-capacity failure to protect claim both fail and are dismissed without prejudice.

So Ordered.
